This is a fable – of America, of the Jazz Age, of enchantment and illusions, of a world where love and dreams are pursued and betrayed.

This April, Giffnock Theatre Players would like to welcome you to the largest party in town, hosted by the Great Gatsby himself!

Who wouldn't want to have a drink with Jay Gatsby? He's charming and mysterious, and throws one hell of a party! "I like large parties. They're so intimate."

A self-made millionaire, Gatsby passionately pursues the elusive Daisy Buchanan. Young Nick Carraway, a newcomer to the prosperous Long Island area where Gatsby and Buchanan live, is drawn into a world of obsession, greed and danger.

The breath-taking glamour and decadent excesses of the Roaring Twenties come to the stage in this much-lauded adaptation of F. Scott Fitzgerald's classic novel.
